A set of five Aubusson tapestries from the Green Dining Room at Leeds Castle, believed to be from Aubusson, France, where they produced mainly large decorative wall hangings.

The Leeds Castle Aubusson tapestries depict pastoral animal scenes bordered by Ionic columns and swags of flowers. Large legends hang from the architrave, containing musical instruments, farming tools and further flowers. This particular series of tapestries have proved to have great versatility and has been much developed by the Zardi & Zardi designers.
